

In this Issue:

- President Kibaki Commends EAC Ministers on NTBs
- Stay The Course To Contain Climate Change
- EAC Grants Rwanda Extension of Duty Waiver on Sugar
- Dar & Mombasa Complementing Each Other, Not Competing
- EAC Panel of Eminent Persons in the Offing
- East African Medicines Registration Harmonization Initiative Launched
- EAC Meets To Review Plan For Single Customs Territory
- EAC Outlines Key Targets For Achieving Industrialization
- Secretary General Meets East African Local Governments Association
- Regional Court Says Can Hear Serengeti Case
- Kenya Government Wins on Appeal in Mount Elgon Case
- EAC To Establish Forensic Referral Center
- EACJ Hosts Delegation From American Bar Association
- International Sports Icon Agitates For Rural Girls Education
- Secretary General Hails Establishment of Carnegie Mellon University in Rwanda
- Secretary General Meets Eastern Africa Farmers' Representatives
- EALA Speaker Meets United States Envoy
- Seven New Envoys Accredited to EAC
- Secretary General Addresses IPACK-IMA 2012 International Exhibition
- Konrad Adenauer Stiftung Representatives Visit EACJ

Download: e-Newsletter, Issue No. 56: 30 March 2012