

EAC Secretariat Zero Tolerance for Fraud, Financial Mismanagement and Other Forms of Malpractice Statement

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 6 of the Treaty for the establishment of the East Africa Community, transparency and accountability are among the fundamental principles of the Community. In this line, the East African Community established an Anti-Fraud and Anti-Corruption Policy that meets international best practices on anti-fraud and anti-corruption.

Anti-Fraud and Anti-corruption Policy is very important to us as we strive to provide our stakeholders with services that meet and even exceed their expectations.

In view of this, the East African Community Secretariat:

- Is committed to anti-fraud and anti-corruption strategy designed to promote standards of honest and fair practices, prosecute fraud corruption, detect and investigate fraud and corruption, prosecute offenders, recover any financial losses, maintain strong systems of internal control;
- Strives to provide services which meet the requirements of its stakeholders in accordance with its core values;
- Is committed to ensuring that the opportunity for fraud and corruption is reduced to the lowest possible; and
- Where a possibility of fraud and corruption occurs, will deal with it in a firm and controlled manner.

I, the undersigned, on behalf of EAC Secretariat, hereby commit to adhere to the policy of zero tolerance for fraud, mismanagement and other forms of malpractice.

Signed

Amb. Libérat Mfumukeko
Secretary General
East African Community
